YOU HOLD THE FATE OF THE GALAXY IN YOUR HANDS!

Jedi Knight Obi-Wan Kenobi has a daunting mission ahead of him. Yoda, Mace Windu, and the Jedi Council have asked him to find out who is trying to assassinate Senator Padmé Amidala. In his quest, he must track a suspect to the planet Kamino, investigate the mysterious origins of a clone army, chase a deadly bounty hunter, and topple a Sith Lord who is trying to dominate the galaxy. Does he have the skills to accomplish so formidable a task? Perhaps . . .

But he needs your help. So go ahead and take the place of his Padawan, Anakin Skywalker. You can help Obi-Wan through this maze of treachery as he tries to save the galaxy from the clutches of the sinister Confederacy of Independent Systems.

The challenge awaits you in the form of questions. With each successful completion of one of the four levels, you will take Obi-Wan further on his mission. Be careful! The questions become more and more difficult as you progress. As Master Yoda would say, "Study you must, youngling, if your duty you wish to do. Clear your mind, trust your instincts, and guide you the Force will."

Obi-Wan and the Republic are counting on you.

Good luck, and may the Force be with you!

LEVEL ONE: CORUSCANT

DO YOU KNOW ENOUGH TO . . .

GET DEX'S HELP?

I'm Dexter Jettster. You may have heard of me; I own Dex's Diner down here in the underbelly of Coruscant. You should try some of our specials, like the Spice Miner's Grand Skillet — all the kromax eggs and shaak strips you can eat!

But that's not why I'm speaking to you.

My old friend Obi-Wan has just come to me for help. He has a problem with a dart he found. Of course, the Jedi Temple analysis droids couldn't identify where it came from. The problem with these newfangled droids is that they're only programmed for limited tasks. I, on the other hand, have spent time on systems most Jedi haven't even hyperspaced through. So I've seen some pretty strange things. Obi-Wan knows it, and that's why he has come to me for advice.

Now, I could easily tell you where this dart comes from, but information doesn't come cheap, especially down here on the lower levels of Coruscant, where credits talk louder than loyalties.

So I've made a bet with Obi-Wan. If you can answer the following questions — and prove to me that Jedi know the difference between knowledge and wisdom — I'll help old Obi-Wan out. And I might even let him have that cup of Jawa juice he ordered on the house.

It's up to you. He's sitting here waiting.

Of course, if you can't answer the questions, old Obi-Wan and I are going to have to think up something to teach you a lesson.

I might add, there's a group of Dugs in the next booth who don't take too kindly to Jedi snooping around. So don't take too long 'cause I don't like fights in my diner!

Finished so soon, are you? Well, you may be quick, but we'll soon find out if you're also smart. Turn to page 89 for the Level One Answer Key and check your answers. Score 1 point for each question answered correctly.

Write your score here 100,000

A PERFECT SCORE IS 50 POINTS.

If you scored 34 points or less, you're toast. But you have one last chance to win Obi-Wan's bet. Go to the next page and correctly answer the SPECIAL FIERY TATOOINE STEW QUESTION. It's the only way to prove you can take the heat of this Jedi mission, given your first failure.

If you scored 35 points or more, turn to page 22. You might want to try the bonus question on the next page just for the heck of it, though it seems to me you're moving forward pretty well without it. Good job. And good luck.

SPECIAL FIERY TATOOINE STEW QUESTION

Who is responsible for retrofitting the R4-P17 in Obi-Wan Kenobi's Jedi starfighter?

a. Obi-Wan Kenobi

b. Barriss Offee

c. Snitt Fixxins

d. Anakin Skywalker

Turn to the next page.

SPECIAL FIERY TATOOINE STEW ANSWER

d. Anakin Skywalker

Were you correct? If you were, turn to page 22.

If you were incorrect, and you scored 34 points or less on the Level One quiz, then you're in deep poo-doo, my friend. Look on the next page to find out what I've got up my sleeve for you.

YOU ARE IN DEEP POO-DOO.

I have some unpleasant news for you, buddy. You just lost Obi-Wan's bet. So I've sent Obi-Wan back to his Jedi Temple with his droids and know-it-all friends, who can't even figure out a simple thing like where a dart comes from. Jedi. Ha!

You know, of course, he's left you at my diner for a reason. Because you've just changed the fate of the galaxy by failing a simple test, you are destined to show up here tomorrow morning at five. We'll have our breakfast rush around that time, and I need someone to scrape the sludge off the plates. After that, you'll need to unclog the grease trap.

By the by, it seems a nasty dianoga has been lurking around that trap for years. The last three beings who attempted to clean that thing out are still applying bacta to some limb or another.

Look at it this way—at least you've got a job. I've arranged for you to work at my diner for a long, LONG, LONG time.

NICE GOING!

Obi-Wan was right about you. I guess you've won the bet for him. So now I'll tell you where that poisoned saberdart came from: the planet Kamino.

Go to the next page to continue your mission.

LEVEL TWO: KAMINO

DO YOU KNOW ENOUGH TO . . .

IMPRESS THE CLONERS?

Greetings, young one. I am Taun We, assistant to the Prime Minister of Kamino. Welcome to our beautiful planet. Your Jedi friend arrived safely and is visiting with the Prime Minister at this very moment. You and your friend are fortunate to have arrived during the best part of the season.

Jedi Obi-Wan Kenobi has traveled far to receive answers to some vital questions. However, Kaminoans are cautious by nature, and one must earn our trust before we will talk freely about matters of great importance.

Master Kenobi told us of your arrival, and informed us that you are trustworthy. We do so want to help the Jedi and the Republic. We must, however, insist that your veracity be tested before we impart any confidential information about Kaminoan business.

It is important, therefore, that you answer the following questions. Please come this way. We have a chamber set aside for your assignment. We will be waiting to hear from you, and so will Jedi Knight Obi-Wan Kenobi.

It is now time to assess your test scores to see if we will be permitted to help you and your Jedi friend with your quest. Turn to page 90 for the Level Two Answer Key and check your answers. Score one point for each question answered correctly.

Write your score here _____

A PERFECT SCORE IS 53 POINTS.

If you scored 37 points or less, you are in a rather difficult spot. You have one last chance to win our trust and help Obi-Wan. Go to the next page and correctly answer the HYPERSPACE BOOSTER QUESTION. It's the only way to jump ahead to the next level, given your disappointing performance.

If you scored 38 points or more, turn to page 42. You might want to try the bonus question on the next page just to continue testing your superior abilities. But there is no need. You have proven yourself. Well done.

HYPERSPACE BOOSTER QUESTION

Kaminoans were once a land-based species. What happened on the planet Kamino that forced the Kaminoans to build their platform cities on stilts?

- a. An asteroid shower induced violent rainstorms and flooded the planet.
- b. A global climate shift melted the planet's ice caps and flooded the planet.
- c. Because cloning is accelerated by water, technology was used to purposely flood the planet.
- d. Ages ago, a water-based alien species ordered millions of clones that required vast amounts of water. The Kaminoans, badly in need of business at that time, used technology to flood the planet. Now the condition is irreversible.

Turn to the next page.

HYPERSPACE BOOSTER ANSWER

b. A global climate shift melted the planet's ice caps and flooded the planet.

Were you correct? If you were, turn to page 42.

If you were incorrect, and you scored 37 points or less in the Level Two quiz, you've disappointed us in a most profound way. Go to the next page to discover what Prime Minister Lama Su has decreed.

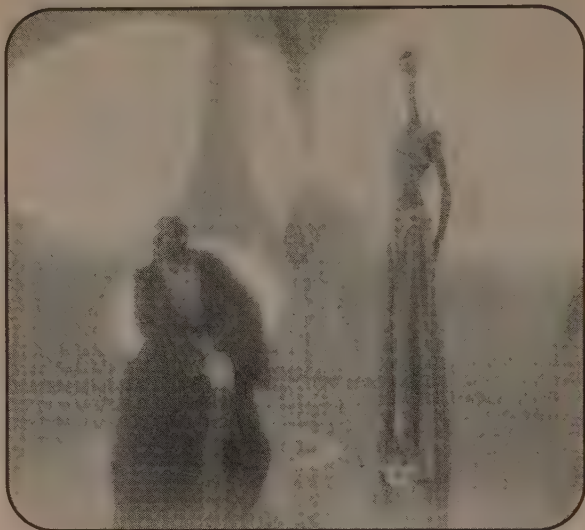

WE WOULD NOT USE YOU AS A GENETIC MODEL!

Prime Minister Lama Su and I have met privately to discuss your fate. I am sorry, but we agreed that it is quite a good thing we weren't asked to use your DNA in the creation of our clone army. You see, we like our clones obedient, not ignorant.

We have told Jedi Knight Kenobi that with a Padawan as inadequate as yourself, we simply cannot help him with his questions. He has gone back to Coruscant and his Jedi Council. It's too bad we weren't able to hide from him the fact that we've created a clone army for the Republic. At least we were able to keep him away from the genetic model for the army.

You, on the other hand, are in for a special treat. It is Kaminoan custom to put failures in charge of clone infant sanitation. What's that? You don't really care for changing diapers? Well, I suppose you should have thought of that before you came here. After all, we have thousands of clone babies, and they, like their originator, don't take kindly to having their needs ignored.

I am sorry. We can no longer help you.

CONGRATULATIONS!

You and Obi-Wan Kenobi have earned the trust of the Kaminoans. I will now introduce you and Master Kenobi to Jango Fett, who not only is the genetic model for the clone army but also helps in their military training.

Go to the next page to continue your mission.

LEVEL THREE: ASTEROID CHASE

DO YOU KNOW ENOUGH TO . . .

EVADE JANGO FETT?

Can I tell you what I hate more than anything? Having my routine disrupted.

I got back from Coruscant and hadn't seen my son, Boba, for a few days. Then that nag Taun We shows up with a Jedi, so I have to leave Kamino in a hurry.

And as if I wasn't having a lousy enough day, Obi-Wan shows up on the landing platform, drawing a lightsaber. I need this like I need a blaster to the temple. He was tough, but I got rid of him so Boba and I could escape in Slave I.

But that's not the end of it. Arriving at Geonosis, Boba spots Obi-Wan tracking us.

I'm going to deal a brand-new hand to that pesky Jedi. The asteroid field ahead is where I'll blast him to bits. He has only one chance. If you can answer the following questions correctly, I'd say you're smart enough to help him avoid extermination. If you don't, he's had it. I promise you.

My patience is at an end.

JANGO FETT'S QUESTIONS

I. LEVEL THREE: BOUNTY HUNTERS

01. When Anakin Skywalker was fourteen, he and Obi-Wan went on a Jedi training mission to:

Those asteroids are treacherous and so is my ship. I hope you were careful. Let's take a look at your score to see if you helped your precious Jedi.

Turn to page 91 for the Level Three Answer Key.
Score 1 point for each question answered correctly.

Write your score here _____

A PERFECT SCORE IS 70 POINTS.

If you scored 49 points or less, you're sunk. You have one last chance to help Obi-Wan. Go to the next page and correctly answer the DEFLECTOR SHIELD QUESTION. It's the only way to avoid being blasted and land safely on the next level.

If you scored 50 points or more, turn to page 64. You might want to try the bonus question on the next page just for the heck of it. But why waste energy unless there are credits involved? You've won this round either way.

DEFLECTOR SHIELD QUESTION

The symbol on the starboard wing of Obi-Wan Kenobi's starfighter was originally created by:

- a. Ancient Jedi
- b. Bendu monks
- c. Republic diplomats
- d. Sith acolytes

Turn to the next page.

DEFLECTOR SHIELD ANSWER

b. Bendu monks

Were you correct? If you were, turn to page 64.

If you were incorrect, and you scored 49 points or less in the Level Three quiz, then you've entertained Boba and me with your failure. I do love to see my opponents lose. Go to the next page to see the results of your spectacular defeat.

HA!

Well, look at this. It seems our Jedi pest won't be bothering us anymore. I am pretty sure I saw his ship explode back there. Looks like smooth sailing for me and Boba from here on out.

Without that Jedi spying on us, the Galactic Republic won't discover what's going on down on Geonosis until it's far too late. Not that I care. . . . I owe no allegiance to either side. I'm just in it for the credits.

And as for YOU, you can take personal responsibility for what's about to happen to the galaxy. Let's just say things won't be the same.

You won't have to worry about it, though. I rigged the ejector seat in your starship to dump you into space if you failed your test. Looks like you'll be joining Obi-Wan after all. So long.

I UNDERESTIMATED YOU.

Looks like you've saved your Jedi friend. For now. He got through the asteroid field and landed on Geonosis, but I'm sure he and I will meet again.

Go to the next page to continue your mission.

LEVEL FOUR: GEONOSIS

DO YOU KNOW ENOUGH TO . . .

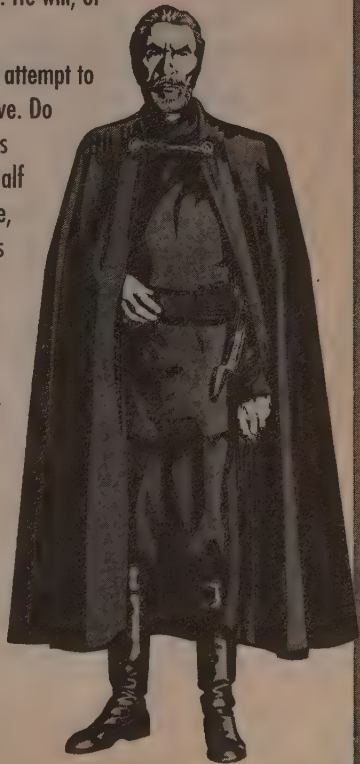

DEFEAT COUNT DOOKU?

Greetings, young fool. Welcome to Geonosis. I am, of course, Count Dooku, leader of the Separatist movement and former Jedi Master. My powers are far superior to yours and to those of your friend Obi-Wan Kenobi. I know that he came here to thwart my plans. He will, of course, fail. I have foreseen it.

I have also foreseen your pitiful attempt to help Master Kenobi. You are truly naïve. Do you really think you can defeat one as powerful in the Force as I? If you're half as smart as you seem to think you are, you'll run back to your ship before it's too late. We do have ways of taking care of people like you. Painful ways, I promise you.

I see. You won't take my advice.

Well, there's very little for me to do other than test your abilities. I already know the outcome, but for your sake, I'll play along. Answer the following questions, if you dare. But be careful. The fate of the galaxy is indeed in your hands.

COUNT DOOKU'S QUESTIONS

Finished so quickly, have we? Well, we'll find out how good you are. Turn to page 92 for the Level Four Answer Key and check your answers.

Score 1 point for each question answered correctly.

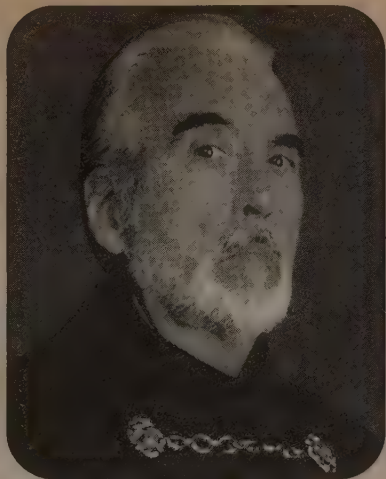

Write your score here _____

A PERFECT SCORE IS 63 POINTS.

If you scored 44 points or less, you've failed, as I knew you would. You have one last chance to help Obi-Wan. Go to the next page and correctly answer the SITH LIGHTNING QUESTION. It's the only way to summon Yoda, who, unfortunately, is the one Jedi who can overpower me.

If you scored 45 points or more, I'm quite annoyed. You might want to try the bonus question on the next page, but I don't really care because you've already proved you can help Obi-Wan defeat me, and I am not amused.

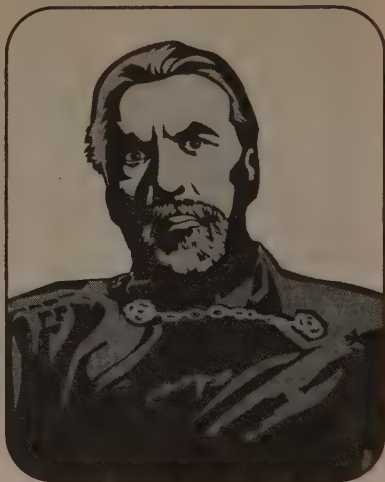

Turn to page 87.

SITH LIGHTNING QUESTION

When fleeing Geonosis, Count Dooku wanted to make sure that the Republic did not get its hands on some very important designs. These designs were for what?

Turn to the next page.

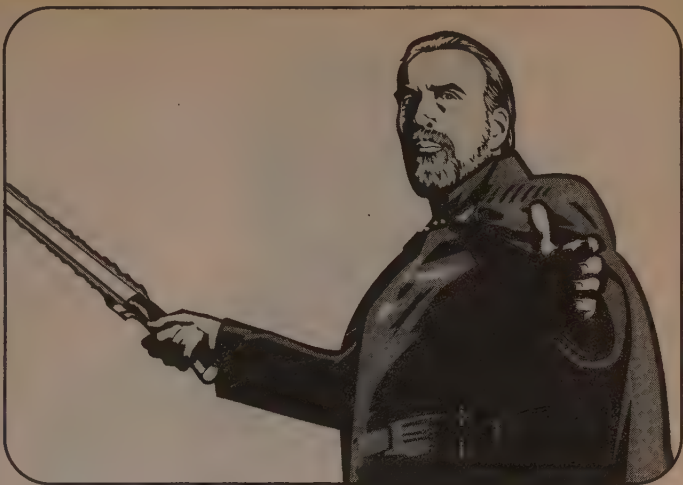

SITH LIGHTNING ANSWER

Death Star

Were you correct? If you were, turn to page 87.

If you were incorrect, and you scored 44 points or less in the Level Four quiz, then go to the next page.

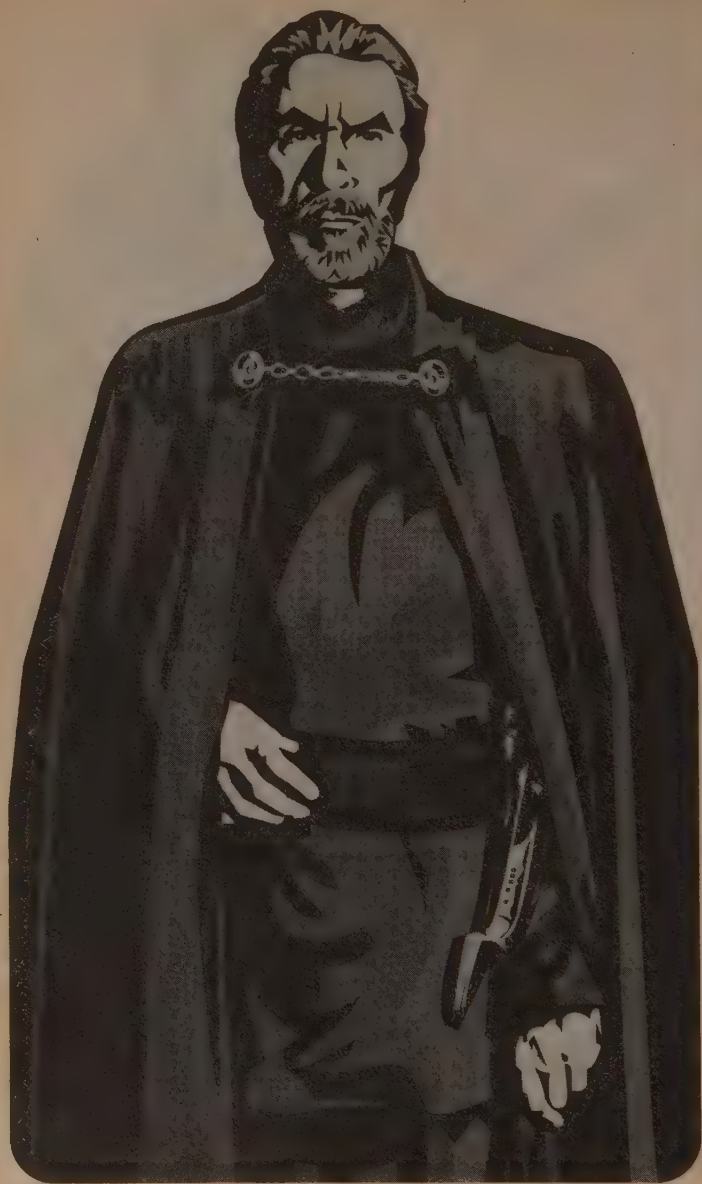

ACCEPT THE INEVITABLE!

And now, my young friend, it would appear that you have sealed the fate of the galaxy as well as that of your friends. I do sense fear and anger in you! If you had used that to your advantage, as I have learned to do, perhaps you would have scored better on this little test. But, alas, your lack of vision ensured your failure.

Now let me tell you what happens next: The Republic and its armies will be driven from Geonosis, and the Separatists will win this "Clone War," as Master Yoda calls it.

So run back to your Jedi Temple, young fool. If you study hard, perhaps we'll have the chance to do battle again one day. Until then, I've wasted enough energy on you. I have an appointment with the true ruler of the galaxy. I'll mention you to him, though.

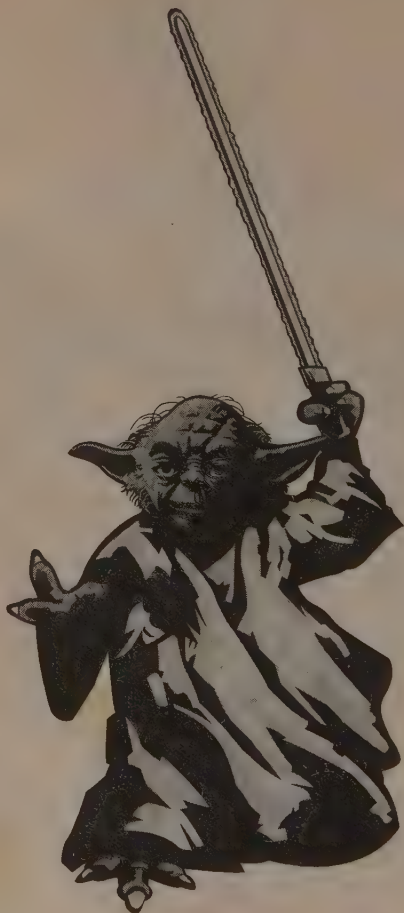

I'm sure we'll both have a good laugh at your expense.

CURSES!

You have helped Obi-Wan overpower me. ME, Count Dooku, a.k.a. Sith Lord Darth Tyranus. Go ahead and laugh. Celebrate your victory. Have a parade. But I assure you that though you've watched me flee today, revenge will one day be mine!

This hardcover, spiral-bound journal is a facsimile of one of Anakin Skywalker's many personal journals, which he kept during his first ten years of Jedi training under Obi-Wan Kenobi. We have taken a selection of pages from those various journals and sketchbooks and placed them in a single volume for the purpose of sharing this historical record. The 128 pages of entries touch on many aspects of Anakin's training, from use of the Force to lightsaber lessons. We encourage you to use it as your own personal journal as well and to record your own thoughts, sketches, and notes.

ATTACK OF THE CLONES™

Trivia Challenge

So you think you're a STAR WARS® fan?

Open this book and prove it!

A multitude of questions awaits you. You must answer them correctly to help Obi-Wan Kenobi through the levels of his perilous mission given to him by Yoda and the Jedi Council. Do you know where to find the crystals that power your lightsaber? Do you know which bounty hunter is also a Clawdite? Can you properly identify a Republic gunship? Open this book if you're prepared to take on the challenge, but be warned: The fate of the galaxy may be in your hands!
